

Browsing a source

Note: a source is a publication accessible through LexisNexis® NZ. You will only see the sources to which you subscribe.

Accessing the Publication Tree (table of contents)

There are four ways you can access the publication tree:

- Quick Sources – click the Browse link next to the source name. (not shown)
- Source Directory – click the Browse link next to the source name. 1
- Content Specific Search Form – click on the Browse tab at the top of the page. (not shown)
- Document View – the Publication panel appears on the left hand side of the page. 2
If it is not currently showing, click the Show TOC link on the Publication panel.

Navigating the Publication Tree

Note: If you sign in to LexisNexis® NZ using a password you can choose between a full or short display in the Publication Tree under Preferences.

1. Click on the plus sign (+) 3 beside any heading to expand the Table of contents at that point. Click on the minus sign (-) 4 to close that branch.
2. Navigate in this way to your chosen section.
3. When you have located the information you want, click the link on the heading to view that document. 5

Navigating a document

Note: a document on LexisNexis® NZ usually consists of several paras of commentary grouped under a heading, several provisions of legislation, or a full case.

- Move from one document to the next using the Document Browse buttons. 6
- Move to a para or section within the document by clicking on the heading in the publication tree (table of contents). 7
Note: you can widen or narrow the Publication panel by clicking on the widen/narrow link, or by clicking and dragging at the right-hand edge of the panel.
- View the material in a wider context by choosing the next heading up in the View drop-down. 8
This will group all the documents under the wider heading onto one screen.
Note: this feature is not available for some sources.

Getting back to where you were

There are plenty of features on each page to help you get back to where you were.

- Click the Start link to return to your designated start page (the home page is the default). 9
- Click the Back to Browse link to return to full screen Publication Tree (table of contents). 10
- Click any point on the Breadcrumb Trail to return to that page. If the trail gets too long, the middle points will be replaced by >/.../>. Hover over this to view the rest of your trail. 11

Navigation

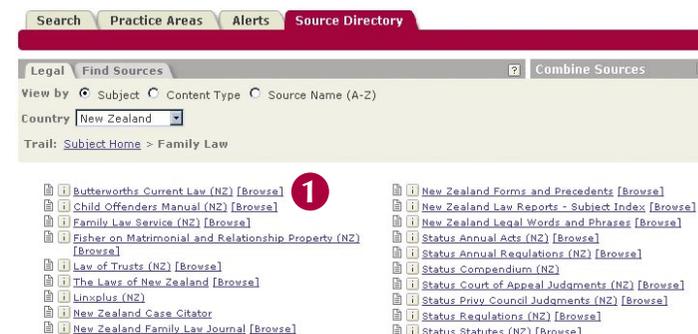

Figure 1: Source Directory

Figure 2: Publication Tree (table of contents)

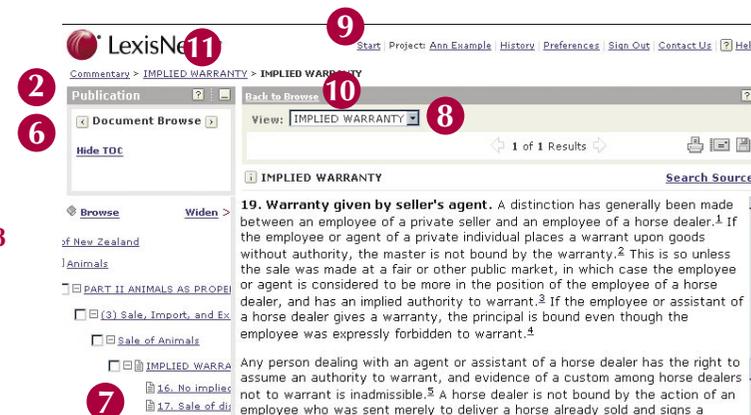

Figure 3: Document View

Browsing search results

Results list

- Click the document title (in blue) to view that document. 1
- Select a View from the drop-down menu to choose how your results are displayed. 2
The default view is expanded list (your search terms appear in context), but you can also choose from list, or list with catchwords (case law only).
- Select a Results Group from the drop-down menu to sort your results into categories. 3
The Table of Contents option is shown in this example, but you can also choose from source or court depending on what sources you have searched across.
- View the next page of results by clicking the arrows. 4 LexisNexis® NZ displays 10 results at a time by default. If you sign in with a password you can change this in your preferences to display up to 50 results at a time.
- Tick the boxes beside a result to add it to a list for printing, emailing or downloading. 5
- Click View Tagged to restrict your results list to the documents you have ticked. 6
- Search within your results by typing extra terms into the narrow search field and clicking Go. 7
- Click Edit Search or New Search to return to the search form. 8
- Click Save Search to save the search or set it as an alert (only available if you sign in with a password). 9 Note: not available on narrowed searches.

Browsing results documents

- Your search terms (Hits) appear in red in the text. 10
- The Publication Tree shows your location in the Table of Contents. 11
- Move between your hits using the hit navigation buttons. 12
- Move between results documents using the arrows. 13
- Tag a document to add it to a list for printing, emailing or downloading by ticking the box. 14
- Print, email or download a document by clicking the appropriate button. 15
- Browse information outside your search by clicking the blue links. 16
- Move to the next or previous document in the source (whether or not it is included in your search results) using the document Browse buttons. 17
- Return to a previous point in your research by clicking on the bread-crumb trail. 18
- Return to your Start page by clicking the Start link. 19
- Search within your results by typing extra terms into the narrow search field and clicking Go. 20
- Click Edit Search or New Search to return to the search form. 21
- Click Save Search to save the search or set it as an alert (only available if you sign in with a password). 22 Note: not available on narrowed searches.

Note: a document on LexisNexis® NZ usually consists of several paras of commentary grouped under a heading, several provisions of legislation or a full case.

Electronic Help Desk 0800 800 986 (option 6) HelpDeskNZ@lexisnexis.co.nz

Navigation

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis search results interface. At the top, there are navigation links: Start, Projects, Ann.Example, History, Preferences, Sign Out, Contact Us, and Help. Below this is the search bar with 'Commentary - All Subscribed Comm...' and 'endangered species (20)'. The 'View' dropdown is set to 'Expanded List'. A 'Narrow your search here...' field is present. The 'View Tagged' checkbox is checked. The results are displayed in a table with columns for 'No.', 'Title', and 'Source & Location'. The first result is 'Part 2 Indictable Offences Under Other Enactments' from 'Abbott and Thompson District Courts Practice (Criminal) (NZ), SUMMARY PROCEEDINGS ACT 1957: SCHEDULES: Schedule 1 Indictable Offences Triable Summarily by [District Court Judges]: Part 2 Indictable Offences Under Other Enactments'. The second result is 'B Reinstatement' from 'Personal Grievances (NZ), Chapter 11 Remedies: B Reinstatement'. The third result is '1.7 BEHAVIOUR OR CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE OFFENDER SUBSEQUENT TO THE OFFENCE' from 'Hall's Sentencing (NZ), Introduction Principles of Sentencing: Division C: 1.7 BEHAVIOUR OR CIRCUMSTANCES OF THE OFFENDER SUBSEQUENT TO THE OFFENCE'. Numbered callouts 1-9 point to various UI elements: 1 (document title), 2 (View dropdown), 3 (Table of Contents dropdown), 4 (page navigation arrows), 5 (checkbox), 6 (View Tagged checkbox), 7 (Narrow search field), 8 (Edit Search button), and 9 (Save Search button).

Figure 1: Results List

The screenshot shows the LexisNexis search results document page. At the top, there are navigation links: Start, Projects, Ann.Example, History, Preferences, Sign Out, Contact Us, and Help. Below this is the search bar with 'Commentary - All Subscribed Comm...' and 'endangered species (20) > Document (15/20)'. The 'View' dropdown is set to '(31) THREATENED, ENDAN...'. A 'Narrow your search here...' field is present. The 'Document Browse' button is visible. The 'Table of Contents' is expanded to show '315. General principles of the Trade in Endangered Species Act 1989'. The text of the document is displayed, with search terms highlighted in red. Numbered callouts 10-22 point to various UI elements: 10 (red highlights), 11 (Table of Contents), 12 (hit navigation buttons), 13 (page navigation arrows), 14 (checkbox), 15 (print, email, download buttons), 16 (blue links), 17 (document browse buttons), 18 (bread-crumb trail), 19 (Start link), 20 (Narrow search field), 21 (Edit Search button), and 22 (Save Search button).

Figure 2: Results Document