The Home Page

1

Browse Topics

The content within Practical Guidance is organised by topic. Simply select the topic relating to the matter that you are working on and you will be presented with a page that provides you with all the key information you need to get started.

2

Search

The search function allows you to search and find information across your practice area. You can conduct a broad text search or limit your search to a particular type of content, such as cases or precedents.

3

Checklists

Checklists walk you through a matter so you never miss a step when completing procedural work. The checklists can be downloaded and saved to your computer for convenience.

4

Precedents

Written by our expert authors and sourced from LexisNexis flagship products, the precedents in Practical Guidance are regularly reviewed and updated to ensure comprehensiveness, accuracy and currency.

5

Recently Viewed Documents

Allows you to easily refer back to documents you've viewed recently. This is especially useful when you use the same documents on a regular basis.

6

What's New and Latest Legal Updates

Keeps you informed of developments in your area of practice. This section highlights updates to the content within Practical Guidance. You can also subscribe to receive this information in a weekly email alert.

The Tabs

7

Overview

The overview tab provides access to a clear and concise introduction to, and summary of each topic, allowing you to find the information you need quickly, and reducing the time it takes to browse through information.

8

Guidance

The guidance tab provides more in depth practical commentary on the issue, while allowing you to link to all Practical Guidance content types, including cases, legislation, forms, precedents and checklists.

9

Commentary

The commentary tab provides access to other sources of commentary on our online legal research platform, LexisNexis NZ.

“As an experienced trust practitioner I am well aware of the difficulties and risks that can arise when working with trusts. This Practical Guidance module has been drafted to provide practical step-by-step assistance with a range of administrative or transactional tasks involving trusts. The module also includes links to relevant legislation, case law and commentary to assist the user.”
