Eligibility for sports fish licences and fees

4 Fish and game councils may issue licences

- (1) A fish and game council may issue 1 or more of the following:
- (a) 24-hour licence:
(b) family licence:
(c) whole-season licence:

- (d) winter licence.
- (2) In addition,—
 - (a) backcountry licences may be issued (by endorsement) by—
 - (i) the Otago Fish and Game Council; or
 - (ii) the Wellington Fish and Game Council:
 - (b) controlled-period licences may be issued by the Otago Fish and Game Council.

5 24-hour licence

If a fish and game council issues 24-hour licences, an adult or a junior may obtain a 24-hour licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 1 of the Schedule.

6 Family licence

If a fish and game council issues family licences, an adult may obtain a family licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 2 of the Schedule.

7 Whole-season licence

If a fish and game council issues whole-season licences,—

- (a) an adult or a junior may obtain a whole-season licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 3 of the Schedule:
- (b) a child may obtain a whole-season licence from that council without payment.

8 Winter licence

If a fish and game council issues winter licences, an adult or a junior may obtain a winter licence from that council on payment of the appropriate fee specified in Part 4 of the Schedule.

9 Whole-season or family licence may be endorsed as backcountry licence

- (1) The following persons may apply to the Otago Fish and Game Council or the Wellington Fish and Game Council to have the specified licence endorsed as a backcountry licence:

- (a) the holder of an adult or junior whole-season licence:
 - (b) the holder of a family licence:
 - (c) the spouse or partner of the holder of a family licence.
- (2) Any person entitled to fish under a backcountry licence must, when requested by the Otago Fish and Game Council or the Wellington Fish and Game Council, provide to the council information on that person's and any companion angler's use of any part of the backcountry fishery.
- (3) No fee is payable for a backcountry licence, as indicated in Part 5 of the Schedule.

10 Holder of backcountry licence or other person may apply for controlled-period licence

- (1) The following persons may apply to the Otago Fish and Game Council for a controlled-period licence:
- (a) the holder of a backcountry licence; or
 - (b) the spouse or partner of the holder of the backcountry licence that is endorsed on a family licence.
- (2) A maximum of 177 controlled-period licences may be issued, and licences are to be issued according to the order in which applications are received.
- (3) The only applications that qualify are those received no more than 5 days before the day for which the licence is requested.
- (4) A controlled-period licence that is issued on application by the spouse or partner of the holder of a backcountry licence that is endorsed on a family licence, is to be issued in the name of the holder of the backcountry licence.
- (5) No fee is payable for a controlled-period licence, as indicated in Part 6 of the Schedule.

11 Fees inclusive of GST

The fees specified in the Schedule are inclusive of goods and services tax.

Explanatory note

This note is not part of the notice, but is intended to indicate its general effect.

This notice, which comes into force on 1 October 2010,—

- fixes the forms and classes of licences to fish for sports fish:
- enables certain persons to apply to have a licence endorsed as a backcountry licence, which adds an entitlement to fish for sports fish in 1 or more of the Greenstone River backcountry fishery, the Dingle Burn backcountry fishery, the Lochy River backcountry fishery, the Nevis River backcountry fishery, or the Rangitikei River backcountry fishery:
- enables certain persons to apply for a controlled-period licence, which entitles the holder, any named companion anglers with backcountry licences, and (in certain situations) family members of the holder to fish for sports fish in the Greenstone River:

- fixes the scope and effect of those classes of licence:
- provides for the licences issued in respect of any region to be available in all other regions (except the Taupo District):
- fixes the fees payable for licences to fish for sports fish. These fees have been set to recover the anticipated costs of management of the freshwater sports fish resource by Fish and Game New Zealand for the 2010–2011 season.

Issued under the authority of the Acts and Regulations Publication Act 1989.
Date of notification in Gazette: 26 August 2010.
This notice is administered by the Department of Conservation.
